

Francis M. Maxwell

Ministry

Throughout his childhood, it was evident that Francis had an intense passion for the Lord coupled with a divine call from God. At the age of 13, he gave his life to the Lord and was soon filled with the baptism of God's Holy Spirit. He later accepted the call of God to minister at the age of 16, preaching his first sermon at a local district service. To perfect and learn more of his call, he underwent ministerial training in the Church of God's Ministerial Internship Program

Education

Francis Maxwell excelled as he matriculated through school and displayed an exceptional gift to teach and to study. He graduated from King Senior High School in Tampa, Florida with honors. He later studied and received his Associate of Arts degree from Hillsborough Community College and studied Economics and Business Administration for his Bachelors of Science degree from the University of South Florida. In the midst of his post-secondary studies, what remains of paramount priority is fulfilling the pastoral call on his life. Subsequently receiving his Ministerial License and is currently serving as the pastor of International Harvest Center Church of God in Tampa, Florida

Family

Francis is married to Mrs. Veronica Maxwell, whom he met at the age of 15 at Faith Temple Church of God. Their love was divinely inspired as the Lord allowed their hearts to be united on July 28, 2001 after their many years of commitment to each other and to Christ. They are the proud parents of three sons. Their devotion to one another and to the work of God has become a testimony to what God can do in the lives of young couples who desire to please Him

As Pastor Francis Maxwell, the gifted preacher, teacher and servant, embarks upon completing the greatest journey of his life -the call of God- he remains a committed, devoted, vibrant and humbled servant of Christ!
